

Handy's Trust and Safety Advisory Board

Protecting the safety and security of Handy's customers and professionals is Handy's top priority, and while our technology platform already safely matches thousands of customers with background-checked professionals on a daily basis, we are committed to continuous improvement and that includes enhancing the integrity of our systems.

The Advisory Board is composed of a talented group of respected leaders from law enforcement, academia, and advocacy communities and works closely with Handy on critical issues related to trust and security practices.

Handy Trust and Safety Advisory Board members include:

- Anthony Braga - Distinguished Professor and Director of the School of Criminology and Criminal Justice at Northeastern University
- Sunitha Cofield - LMSW is the Director of Consulting Services at RAINN
- Edward Davis - Boston Police Commissioner from 2006 to 2013
- J. Trevor Hughes - President and CEO of the International Association of Privacy Professionals (IAPP)
- Howard Safir - New York City Police Commissioner from 1996 to 2000, and New York City Fire Commissioner from 1994 to 1996
